Re: At Last Sportswear v. Kamens,
13 CV 2355 (WHP) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Pauley:

We represent Defendant Michael Kamens in the above-referenced action, in which his former employer, a corporation, asserted breach of contract claims after it induced him to work for it under false pretenses and then terminated his position. He has been robbed of hundreds of thousands of dollars and is now unemployed and has asserted counter-claims against Plaintiff and three (3) individuals with whom he worked for Plaintiff.

Pursuant to the Court's August 5, 2013, Scheduling Order (Docket Entry 16), Mr. Kamens is to "notify the parties by August 7, 2013 as to whether he intends to amend or withdraw any counter-claims," and that Mr. Kamens "will make any amendments to his counter-claims by August 9, 2013." See Scheduling Order, annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

We respectfully request that the Court grant Mr. Kamens an extension for the two (2) deadlines above. We raise this concern now because we need more time to consult with our client, in addition to several unexpected conflicts that have arisen regarding timing. We respectfully propose an extension of one (1) week, i.e., that Mr. Kamens be:

- (i) Ordered to notify the Parties of his intentions by Wednesday, August 14, 2013;
- (ii) Ordered to make amendments, if any, to his counter-claims by Friday, August 16, 2013.

No prior requests for such an extension have been made.

Application granted.

SO ORDERED:
